Y-Finance Drive Ends With $2500 GoalIn Sight

With the effective completion of the Y-Finance Drive Y-Finance drive, our $2500 contributions totaling over $2500. In conclusion, we will be turned in the Y confident in meeting the goal of $5000.

The drive Chairman Joe Clshady says that the funds will be used for the expansion of the campus and for the purchase of new equipment.

Radio Top

Although final reports are not yet in, it looks like the student body has contributed with a total of $410, with Olles, Bligh, Hillator, and Blakely Corporation leading in that order. The drive gives $30,000. 4000, on campus undergraduates, 3300, on the faculty and student body.

This money will make up one of the best drives in the history of the Y, it will go almost directly into the hands of the students. A report of the Y that benefited an equal amount to the student body.

They Also Serve

Although the drive was run by Bob Etilan, in charge of publicity, Carl Clain, president, and Webster, treasurer, the drive was run by Desoto, Schneider, faculty, Peter Kranes, Bruce Blocker, Jack McKee, Bill Cox and the staff of the University.

It is expected that the drive will exceed the $5000 goal.

Drop to League Leaders

By J. P. Wilt

Victory would have been a fitting climax to Whittier game played by the Engineers last Saturday night, but hard luck creased its ugly head and helped Redlands to a 23-24 win.

The Bulldogs got off a 5-1 lead in the first seven minutes. The Beavers then got hot, narrowing the margin to 5-6 for the rest of the first half there was never more than 5 points difference or less than 2, the half ending with Redlands ahead 16-10.

Dogs Go Ahead

In the second half spectators saw the pattern repeated with Redlands going a head by 9 points after five minutes. Again we spurned within the five points, but could not take the lead.

The above outline is far from the whole story, however. A defense which revealed anything so far this year, had the Bulldogs scored least to the point of panic.

Defensive Sharp

Patterson and Montgomery led the team in its exceptional display of poll defense. Redlands turned inward for the rest of the game.

SPEAKIN' SPORTS with Mike

Did you see the fire ball blazing over one of our last Saturday nights? With a good cost of use, the whole town was hand in hand to extinguish them from the Globe Theatre? We had two time we came across it as a Redlands night because the Bulldogs were just as hot as any night.

A special kiss on the forehead to Montgomery who was out standing in the game. He was our superior defensive秀 that took it on the chin. Redlands then made a tough effort in the last 10 minutes as in a busy book.

Caltech had lost its first two games, and this one was a popular defensive show that Teach got up. Swinney, our head man, made a tough effort in the last 10 minutes as in a busy book.

Bevo Bowlers Drop Toughie

Bob Ricketts pointed out that our game was better than the Cal Poly, the bowlers pulled out a 21-37 haul time before to overcome our_lineups (21-37) in the second outing. Big spurt to this was Dave Strever, who bowled a 140-point in the second half.

Fair Neck.

High score in the game, how ever, was John Geer, who knocked total of 131 pins. Altogether nine pins broke the scoring rubs to make the win a team victory. For another out, Kay Fryer put in a good score, a 150-pin game. I. H. god ish and Bill Peterson singletons.

Darts Defeat Hot Rowdies For Show

Last week, the Distributor TV bowl charged handle as the like basketball team downed a scare, both parties shooting five by the score of 26-22. The combined efforts of Rickett's high pointers Biercott, Kar-nake, and Mosley were not good enough to keep Dalmany's Tyson and Ross from winning. The team's lead bounced back and forth as the game progressed, but in the final moments it was the rowdies pulled through with three more points.
