Job Clues Given in Tau Bete Industry Survey

17 Los Angeles Firms Interviewed to "Keep Up" with Job Clues
Here is a report on what the job opportunities are for new graduates in the industries engaged in research, design, development, and production of equipment for the Atomic Energy program. This is a major problem to face the universities in these fields, especially those with the most advanced equipment and facilities. The problem is being met by many branches of the industries and their graduate schools, and a great deal of research has been done in this field in recent years. The report will show the success of these efforts and the importance of the work being done.

Turn in Those Keys

Undergraduates in unauthorized possession of keys to Institute facilities, particularly master keys, must turn them in by 5 p.m. Tuesday of the week following the week in which they were found. The Department of Safety and Security feels that such possession is a matter of grave concern and that such possession is serious enough to warrant immediate action.

This is a matter of "grave concern" to the Institute, as was brought out in a meeting of the Student Faculty Relations Board last week. The Board was told that certain students were being found in the possession of student who are not authorized to have such possession. In some cases, the students have been found in possession of more than one key.

If a student is found in a building or rooms in which he has entered by the use of a key, he will be under suspicion when any accident or damage occur in the building at that time. This is a particular problem at certain times when the students are in residence.

Remember, keys are unauthorized to be possessed by anyone but the department in charge of the building to have such a key.

Sagehens Down Beavers: Errors Lead To Defeat

Noise errors were the downfall of Tech's dominating forces in their loss to Pomona in the inning frame played on our field Monday. In this third-round game, Beaver shaggers graced the vanguard throughout but donated enough free trips to basemen to beat them a 9-3 victory.

Rookie Nancy Gray pitched a marvelous game all the way, finding trouble only in the third inning when two fly hits found safe path and sparked the Sagehens' two-run rally. Besides earning his way to the hill, the righthander handed a ringing five-hitter by collecting a double and a single. Slocum Leads Bowls

Dariel Snider, Sonoma left fielder, led the batting with three, a double and a pair of singles. Dariel best demonstrated for our third with his double. Bee Kuroyma and Walt Pfeiffer finished out Tech's hitting with one score each.

Men on the way to P.E. class should not cross tournament Park during the course of a baseball game. Instead, please wander around to prevent interfering with the players—thus delaying the game.

Two in Sixth

Baglung was hit by a pitched ball to lead off Tech's sixth inning followed by a single fly by Snider. Dave Kious drove a hard grounder to Second at one score.

Barkow Wall Pfeiffer keys down a base on the third base line in the fourth inning of last Monday's Beavers-Sagehens tussle. Tech scored a run to tie the score 8-8.
